THURSDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 28.

THE ORPHAN ASYLUM MEETING.—The annual meeting for the benefit of the Orphan Asylum and Female Free School, was held in the Methodist Episcopal Church South, last night, and though the attendance was less than anticipated, and the meeting in point of numbers, far below the gatherings of former years, yet the spirit manifested showed no abatement in zeal for the cause, and the amount realized exhibited a degree of liberality that speaks nobly for those who gave, and will doubtless incite others who were not present, but who feel as deep an interest in the maintenance of this Alexandria's favorite charity, to respond equally as liberally for the support of the helpless orphans.

The meeting was presided over by Lewis McKenzie, esq., who, by his enlivening remarks and liberal donations, aided much in the success which attended the exercises.

Rev. Mr. McCampbell opened the exercises with prayer; after which a choir, improvised for the meeting, discoursed some most excellent music, appropriate to the occasion.

After the reading of the annual report of the Managers, and the Treasurer's report, the former of which shows that there are now sixteen orphans in the Asylum, that there has been no death in the institution during the year, and touchingly alluding to the decease of one of the Board of Managers, the orphans led by Mr. John T. Cook, sang a beautiful and appropriate hymn.

Mr. McKenzie then made a short but pertinent address, setting forth the object of the meeting, and making a happy appeal in behalf of the orphans.

The usual method of raising funds, by conferring the honorary degree of life membership upon a subscription of twenty dollars, was then proposed, and in a short time the following ladies and gentlemen were duly elected, viz: Mrs. Lettich, McCampbell, Munsey, Willis, Norton, Randolph, Sprigg, Kross, J. T. Johnston, Biting, Nice, Wheeler and Slaughter; Mrs. Judge Thomas, Mrs. E. Snowden, Sr., Mrs. Biting, Mrs. McCampbell, Mrs. Willis, Mrs. Lettich and Mrs. Munsey; Judge Thomas, Edgar Snowden, Sr., Hugh Latham, Lewis McKenzie, Jas. Green, James Grigg, and J. T. Cook.

During the evening short addresses were made at the request of the ladies, by Edgar Snowden, Sr., and Judge H. W. Thomas.

A vote of thanks was given to the choir, and to Mr. Latham for his kindness in furnishing conveyance for the orphans; and then after another appropriate piece by the choir, and the benediction, the meeting adjourned.

The total amount realized will exceed $600.

REV. MR. MUNSEY'S LECTURE.—The Rev. Mr. Munsey, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, in this city, has, as will be seen by the following correspondence, consented to deliver a lecture for the benefit of the Orphan Asylum:

ALEXANDRIA, VA., Feb. 17th, 1867.

Rev. W. E. Munsey:
Sir: Potomac Lodge No. 38, I. O. O. F., has determined to have a lecture for the benefit of the "Orphan Asylum of Alexandria," and I have been instructed to invite you to deliver a lecture on the 20th or 27th proximo. We sincerely desire that you may find it convenient to comply.

We wish to obtain your church for the services, and hope you may be able to grant our request in that particular.

Your obedient servant,
HUGH LATHAM, for the Committee.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., Feb. 19th, 1867.

Hon. Hugh Latham:
DEAR SIR: Your polite note of invitation to deliver a lecture for the benefit of the Orphan Asylum of Alexandria, is received. Though not a member of the noble Order you represent, I entertain a profound respect for it, and cannot but warmly endorse what I understand to be the chief object of its institution, and I do not feel free to refuse a request emanating from it, especially when that request is in the form of an invitation to deliver a lecture for the benefit of an Orphan Asylum. I will cheerfully deliver the lecture in question on the 27th proximo, for which purpose you are welcome to the use of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, in this city.

Your obedient servant,
W. E. MUNSEY.

FIRE.—About half past one o'clock last night, Mr. James H. Simpson, residing over his bakery, on Fairfax street, near King, was awakened by the suffocating effects of smoke, which filled his bed-room, and which, upon investigation, was found to issue from the cellar of the adjoining house, occupied by Mr. Edgar Speiden, as a family grocery store.

The alarm was instantly given, in a short time the Fire Department was on the ground, and, by the vigorous and plentiful application of water, the flames, which had invaded the lower and second floors of the house, were speedily extinguished. Some excitement was created among the crowd in the neighborhood of the burning building by the announcement that powder was stored there, but Captain Walsh of the night watch, and young Mr. Taylor Arnold, having learned its location, plunged boldly through the smoke and soot emerged bringing with them the only two kegs in the house. The stock of Mr. Speiden was considerably injured but was fully insured in Baltimore Companies. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary, and was kindled in the cellar of the house.

REV. MR. MUNSEY.—A letter from the University of Virginia, published in the Richmond Times, says:

"A sensation has been created in our community by the advent of a hitherto unknown genus—a mention of which could not be omitted in any letter written from the University at this time. Rev. Mr. Munsey, pastor of the Southern Methodist Church in Alexandria, Virginia, preached in our community on Sunday night, and made an impression quite without a parallel in the recollection of any citizen with whom I have spoken about him."

To say that he is an orator, would be doing him great injustice; for the wonder is, that with disadvantages of person, manner and voice, that few men have to contend with, he holds his audience enchained as by a spell.

His power lies in deep thoughts and an imperial diction. If I expressed my own opinion or that of those who heard him, I should incur the charge of being extravagant, therefore I content myself with what I have said, feeling assured that he must ere long be known to the world, and placed in the high position that he deserves.
